

SECRECYP AGREEMENT
(Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement)

Company (details below) is interested in discussing the subject of :

_____ with Chempilots a/s.

During such discussions it may be necessary for each party to provide the other with business and/or technical Information in written or oral form or in form of samples relating to the subject. In order to protect any proprietary rights of the parties, the parties agree that any information that is made available from one party to the other will be subject to the following definitions, terms and conditions:

1. The recipient undertakes for a period of five (5) years from the date of disclosure to treat received Information as strictly confidential and therefore not to disclose it to any third party (except reliable employees under secrecy obligation), and to make no commercial use of it without the express consent of the disclosing party.
2. The recipient agrees to protect the Information from disclosure to any unauthorised party. This obligation does not apply to
 - a) Information which, at the time of disclosure, is already in the public domain;
 - b) Information which, after disclosure, becomes a part of the public domain by publication through no violation of this Agreement;
 - c) Information which the recipient is able to prove to be in possession of prior to any disclosure. In this case, the recipient will demonstrate that he is in possession of this Information in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of Information, or forego application of this provision;
 - d) Information which is hereafter lawfully disclosed by a third party to the recipient, which third party did not acquire the Information under a still effective obligation of confidentiality to the disclosing party.
3. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as granting to the recipient, by implication or otherwise, any license with respect to the Information or any patent applications, patents or any claims of patent now or hereafter filed or issued with respect to the Information.
4. The present Agreement will come into force on the day of the last signature.
